Optional Topics (Select only one):

Topics:

1. Many communities across our nation are finding it necessary to cut extracurricular activities in our public schools and state universities. Many other schools are requiring the families of students to pay increasing fees and expenses associated with these programs which in the past were paid by the schools. What, in your opinion, do these activities add to your educational experience and what would the impact be if they were eliminated?

Essay:

2. Many young people become depressed in their teen years when faced with the challenges and stress of growing up. Some resort to suicide when they feel that there is no other way to cope with what is going on in their life. Do you believe participation in high school sports provides the kind of experience which promotes a more stable and self fulfilled student who is better able to cope with life's pressures and who is not drawn toward such acts? What more could be done by extracurricular activities to help in this area?

Essay:

3. To what degree do you believe bullying and/or hazing is a problem in local sports? What are the negative impacts? What is the negative impact on self-esteem and the individual? On the team? What can be done to prevent this from happening?

Essay:

4. We have seen underage drinking and substance abuse negatively impact student athletes and teams within this community. What are the impacts of student athlete use of alcohol and/or illegal substances on a team? What are the long-term personal impacts? Do performance-enhancing drugs fall into the category of substance abuse and to what extent is it a problem?
